Step 2

Bring your Corporate Canoe Pass and a piece of Government issued ID to the Banff Canoe Club and enjoy up to 2 hours on the water.

- The user must provide the Corporate Canoe Pass as well as a valid photo ID at the time of rental.
- All users must sign a waiver prior to renting.
- The Corporate Canoe Pass holder must be one of the passengers in the canoe.
- If the pass is used for longer than the allotted 2 hours, $30/hour for additional hours will be charged.
- Paying customers receive priority at peak times.
- Blackout dates: Statutory Holidays.

Step 3

Bring your Corporate Canoe Pass back to The Moose Hotel & Suites within 3 hours of the pickup time and collect your Staff ID.

- Passes not returned within 3 hours will be considered lost.
- The employee responsible for a lost pass will be charged a $50 replacement fee. Their Canoe Program privileges may be suspended permanently.
- Failure to observe all terms and conditions, or misconduct while using a Corporate Canoe Pass will result in your Canoe Program privileges being suspended.
