

2022 INDIVIDUAL GOLF PASS PROGRAM

Terms and Conditions of Purchase and Payment:

- You must be an active Banff Lodging Company employee on the day of purchase to be eligible to purchase a discounted Employee Golf Pass from Banff Lodging Co.
- By purchasing an Employee Golf Pass, you are also agreeing to all Fairmont Banff Springs Golfer Guidelines.
- Your pass will be available for pick up approximately five business days after you order it (times may vary subject to demand).
- Employee Golf Passes are non-refundable.
- If purchased by cash payment must be made in full on the day of purchase (we can't provide you with change so you have to have the exact amount).
- If purchased by using payroll deduction it is the purchaser's responsibility to ensure adequate hours are worked, and adequate funds available to cover payroll deductions relating to all active agreements with Banff Lodging Company.
- If pay is insufficient to cover all outstanding preauthorized payroll deductions, it is the purchaser's responsibility to make timely payment(s) at Head Office for all monies owing, either by cash, or credit card. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of the Employee Golf Pass by Fairmont Banff Springs without refund.

Leaving Employment:

- If your employment with Banff Lodging Company ends for any reason while participating in the Employee Golf Pass Program, you must complete payment of the full balance of your Employee Golf Pass purchase on or before your final day of work.
- Payments can be made at Head Office by cash, cheque or credit card. Failure to do so will result in your Employee Golf Pass being cancelled by Fairmont Banff Springs.
- If you have opted to pay the balance via payroll deduction, any outstanding balance will be deducted from your final pay cheque, which may include earnings and vacation pay if necessary.
- If your final pay is insufficient, you must make a payment for the full remaining balance at Head office via cheque, cash or credit card. Failure to do so will result in your Golf Pass being cancelled by Fairmont Banff Springs.

2022 INDIVIDUAL GOLF PASS PROGRAM

2022 Cart Policy

- Each golfer is entitled to use one seat in the golf cart.
- Posts at the green site indicate the optimal spot for leaving your cart before proceeding to the green.
- Before leaving the deck with a cart, you must inspect the cart and point out to a Banff Springs staff member any damages on the cart.
- Days when carts are permitted on the fairways, you must leave the fairway at / or before the cart signs leading up to the green, beyond these signs the cart must remain on the cart path. In the absence of cart signs on certain holes you must leave the fairway 30 yards before the green and return to the cart path
- Carts are not permitted in the fescue (long rough), on mounds, tee boxes and on or around the greens
- Carts must remain on cart paths on all par 3's unless otherwise indicated on course.
- Carts must not be driven in a negligent or reckless manner.
- On high volume days there may be times when we run out of golf carts. It is understood that on these days carts may not be available at the start of your round. A cart will be brought to you at the earliest convenience.
- You can only have 1 additional passenger with you in the cart. That person must be entitled to ride in the cart through possession of a cart pass or purchase of a daily fee usage.
- Having another golfer's bag on the golf cart constitutes an additional passenger in the cart and that person must be entitled to ride in the cart as noted previously
- As the driver you are responsible for the cart. Any damage to the cart will be billed to you and your cart pass suspended until payment is received.
- You will be responsible for any damages caused to any private vehicles in the parking lot and on any of the roads.
- At the end of your round carts may be taken to your vehicle to unload equipment and clothing then be taken to the Cart Return station located in the lower parking lot. There, all carts are inspected for damage. Extra care should be taken when driving in the parking lot.
- The use of a cart is at your own risk, the Fairmont Banff Springs is not responsible for any personal injury that may occur to, driver, passenger or 3rd party.
- It is your duty to collect all personal items out of the cart at the end of the round; The Fairmont Banff Springs is not responsible for any loss or damage to personal items.
- Failure to comply with any of the above regulations will result in a disciplinary review and appropriate penalty that may include loss of your pass.
